

Official Statement

Durlicouros reaffirms its commitment to traceability and responsible leather sourcing, actively participating in discussions for the development of state and national models for full traceability and compliance. The company is a pioneer in creating its own traceability program for indirect suppliers, internationally recognized as innovative and effective.

All operations strictly comply with Brazilian laws and responsible sourcing principles, including adherence to the Terms of Adjustment of Conduct (TAC) signed by Durlicouros and its suppliers with the Federal Public Prosecutor's Office (MPF) in Pará, with positive results in independent audits accredited by the MPF.

Furthermore, all Durlicouros units are certified by the Leather Working Group (LWG), ensuring high standards of sustainability, traceability, and environmental responsibility, in line with the purpose of each facility.
