Ref: Brazilian leather – reply to your letter dated 7 March 2025

Dear Sirs,

We appreciate your reaching out to us regarding your concerns. We take such matters very seriously and we are pleased to share our feedback below.

Firstly, please note that at Fendi, as part of our purchasing process, we constantly monitor the origin of our sourcing. Namely, as far as the two suppliers in question (Conceria Cristina - Gruppo Peretti and Faeda, both certified by the Leather Working Group), they periodically declare and confirm that they use exclusively leather sourced from Europe. This practice is in strict accordance with the policies of the LVMH group.

Therefore, based on the above, we can confirm that there is no direct or indirect involvement of FENDI in relation to the alleged illegal practices you reported.

In any event, out of an abundance of caution, we are nonetheless conducting further investigations into the matter. We are committed to thoroughly examining all aspects of your concerns and will share any useful results with you - if any - once our investigations are complete.

Kind regards,

Fendi S.r.l.
